

Bribery and Corruption

Cenkos Securities recognises the adverse effects that bribery and corruption can have on national economies and society and has taken steps reasonably designed to eliminate bribery of any kind wherever it operates. Cenkos Securities is committed to conducting its business fairly, honestly and openly without the use of corrupt practices or acts of bribery to obtain an unfair advantage.

A bribe is any form of inducement made with the intention of influencing any party to something which is dishonest, illegal or unethical. Bribes can take many forms and include business practices which, depending on the circumstances, may otherwise appear legitimate, including the offer or acceptance of direct or indirect payments, services, gifts, charitable donations, sponsorships or preferential treatment.

Cenkos Securities has zero tolerance to bribery and corruption and has developed policies and procedures reasonably designed to prevent it or its clients giving or accepting bribes or being involved in corrupt practices.
